11 Hiking Pants for Performance and Comfort on the Trail

Because sweatpants and jeans just won't cut it.

When you find yourself addicted to nature (like we are), you'll love a pair of dedicated hiking pants such as these, that are versatile, durable, offer freedom of movement, and will keep you comfortable for long days on the trail.

Mountain Hardwear Right Bank Scrambler Pants (Men's)

from $84

Ideal for climbing, hiking, and hanging around town, these pants can do it all. Climbers love the Scramblers because the performance stretch fabric lets you swing like a monkey from feature to feature. These pants dry quickly, so even if you get sweaty or stuck in a rainstorm, you'll still be ready for après-adventure refreshments at the local watering hole.
