8 Products to Keep You Cozy This Winter

Humans don't have the luxury of hibernating through the winter. So when the weather outside gets frightful, turn to one of these eight delightful warming products.

5. MOUNTAIN HARDWEAR GHOST WHISPERER DOWN JACKET, $200+

At 6.4 ounces, this down-filled jacket is ultra light and packs down small. It's not super puffy, so it can be worn inside when the heat isn't cutting it—but thanks to its quilting pattern, which helps to trap warmth, it's also great to take outside. We wore it on a trip to Iceland, where it kept us cozy on a hike up a glacier and when we got drenched by Geysir and the spray from waterfalls. It's available in a number of colors and in a hooded version.
